

Proclamation

by Governor Earl Ray Tomblin

Whereas, volunteerism strengthens communities, addresses vital societal concerns and enhances the quality of life for all citizens; and

Whereas, volunteering increases the self-confidence and physical well-being of volunteers while positively affecting communities; and

Whereas, community organizations, faith-based organizations, civic and humanitarian groups, and governmental agencies are encouraged to organize local events which will meet unique community needs; and

Whereas, citizens of West Virginia are encouraged to participate in and organize service projects in their communities; and

Whereas, this day provides an opportunity to identify local needs and make an ongoing commitment to service throughout the year; and

Whereas, West Virginians will join with the residents of Virginia, Maryland and Washington, DC to participate in a regional Day to Serve focusing on the issues of hunger and other community improvement projects.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Earl Ray Tomblin, Governor of the State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim September 29, 2012, as the:

Governor's Day to Serve

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to volunteer in their respective communities.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Thirty-First day of July, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twelve, and in the One Hundred Fiftieth year of the State.
